Weekend Break in a Rural Retreat in the Nene Valley

Weekend country cottage in Woodnewton, Nene Valley donated by Jill & David Anderson, sleeps 8, starting bids from £250 to jack.goss@hp.com

Beautiful rural retreat nestled in Woodnewton in the heart of the villages along the Nene Valley on the Northamptonshire/Cambridgeshire borders. Woodnewton is in the doomsday book and is a very quiet village near the market towns of Oundle and Stamford.

About a 2-hour drive from Marlow.

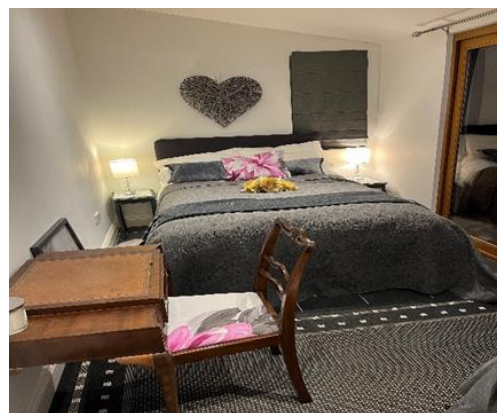

The area is steeped in history – Fotheringhay where Mary Queen of Scots was imprisoned and executed is walking distance from the cottage. It has a beautiful church and much other history to be discovered .

The cottage sleeps 8 , 1 king, 2 doubles and 1 small double. It has two bathrooms, lounge, kitchen, dining room and outside gym. It is well equipped; all bedding and towels are included along with an honesty bar.

There is a pub – actually more of a restaurant next door to the cottage which serves a range of good food and is staggering distance back home.

Lots of beautiful walks, coffee shops and boutiques in both Oundle and Stamford. Available most weekends. But sorry no dogs, stag or hen parties.
